

Home (English)

Taurus-i delivers a high quality, integrated Performance Management solution to the customer starting from vision development over package selection to implementation, coaching and maintenance. This Performance Management platform will be build from a business perspective with the latest cutting edge technology in co-operation with the client, for the client. Taurus-i prides itself on its deep knowledge of Performance Management and the ability of her consultants to communicate this in business terms.